

Veoneer's Research Tech Talk "Trust in Collaborative – and Self-Driving – What's Next?" Published Virtually

Stockholm, Sweden, January 13, 2022: The automotive technology company Veoneer, Inc. (NYSE: VNE and SSE: VNE SDB), has published its 2022 Research Tech Talk, "Trust in Collaborative – and Self-Driving – What's Next?", where thought leaders discuss the power and potential of the expanding world of Augmented Driving and what it will take to continue evolving safe and convenient mobility.

Veoneer Senior Advisor, Ola Boström, moderates a panel of industry thought leaders including:

- Chris Mullen, Senior Director of Organizational Safety, Aurora
- Jordan Sun, Chief Innovation Officer, Mayor's Office, City of San Jose
- Anshuman Saxena, Senior Director, Product Management Qualcomm Technologies, Inc.

Tune in to watch these panelists reach a consensus on what it takes to continue evolving the progress of safe vehicles, including the answers to the following topics: What is needed for a safe traffic situation? Does all transport have to be on the ground? What key insights are possible to share within the automotive industry? When the car is seen as a system, what services does it enable for me?
